

Board Report
February 20, 2019 - April 24, 2019

February 4, I did a Board training session at the Brown City Public Library.

February 8, I attended the “meet and greet” for the new Director at Gladwin District Library, John Clextan

February 11, I attended the ribbon cutting at the Howe Memorial Library, Breckinridge (room addition).

February 25, I met with the School Board of the J O Memorial Library, Kingston.

February 28, I visited with the W Branch Library Board and Ogemaw District Library, Rose City.

March 6, I visited Sebewaing, Pigeon and Bad Axe Public Libraries.

February the Cooperative Directors met in Lansing, part of the meeting was planning for the future of the CDA and how cooperatives can work together.

We have purchased and installed Quick books. Jane is working on learning and inputting information.

Updated Library Bill of Rights should be added to the WPLC policies.

February 8, finally all State Aid Reports have come in (4 copied from LM). Each library was sent its statistical charts.

I have been updating the advocacy sheets for each library to use with its legislative person and its own board.

To date, 25 White Pine members have registered for the Small libraries, big impact conference at the end of the month. I'll be attending as well.

Nanette, St Charles, and I have been putting together a workshop for library security. At the same time, there will be a presentation on library and their communities: CRASE Presentation (Citizen Response to Active Shooter Events May 22 at 10:00am.

On April 17, I attended the session with Marshall Breeding on ILS capabilities.

May 6 I will do a Board training session for the W Branch District Library.

Mango Languages is willing to offer Members a discount. Let me know if you are interested.

RIDES pricing will be announced by the end of April.

Reminder that the 2020 census will be completely online. The Census Bureau is telling people to go to the library if they need a computer or help. It is to our benefit to ensure everyone is counted since our populations have been decreasing. Since so much funding is on a per capita basis, we want everyone counted.

On 4/26 I'll be in Lansing for the CDA meeting.

The Annual meeting is set for October 9, 2019, 10:00-4:00 at the Golden Glow Ballroom. Kris Rzepczynski will present on genealogy resources, Fred Schutmaat will discuss space planning and author Tom Carr will talk about his writings.

The Senate, yesterday, passed a road funding bill out of committee. It will implement the 2015 road funding bill a year early – by taking $600 million out of the general fund. State Aid to libraries comes from the general fund. The Gov. has threatened to veto this bill.
