Public Comments/Membership News:

Multiple members shared that they had begun the process of updating their websites through Streamline. They reported a vast improvement in accessibility and updates to appearance after moving from PLoad.

Christian Dunham, Bullard Sanford Memorial Library, shared that they are in the process of installing a new electronic sign.

Melissa McCarthy, Thomas Township Library, announced that the library plans to join VLC and will be moving their catalog in August. They have been weeding in preparation and have already weeded 42,000 items. Their circulation is up, and a new teen area has been created.

Michelle Duclos, Frankenmuth Wickson District Library, discussed hosting a social for MLA's Spring Institute. It was a busy, yet fun affair, and having the fun of so many youth librarians around was truly infectious.

Kari Besancon, Iosco Arenac District Library, announced that the library has updated their logo. This new logo and their updated website will be launching in the coming months.

Stop the Bleed Training – Lt. Mark Przybylski, Saginaw County Emergency Manager, and Tiffany Fiting, Director, Merrill District Library

Lt. Przybylski presented a Stop the Bleed training for members. Attendees learned the proper steps to identify and address life-threatening bleeding. Attendees practiced these skills using training kits and were able to become certified upon completing the training.

Next Meeting: The next meeting will be on June 25, 2025, location TBD.
